MEDICINAL. $500 REWARD! FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapse, or Falling of Womb which they can not cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

Their financial responsibility is well known to every newspaper publisher and druggist in the United States, with most of whom they have done business for over a third of a century. From this fact it would be seen how utterly foolish it would be for them to make the above unprecedented and remarkable offer if they were not basing their offer on curative means having an unparalleled record. No other medicine than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription could possibly "win out," as the saying goes, on such a proposition. But they know whereof they speak. They have the most remarkable record of cures made by this world-famed remedy ever placed to the credit of any preparation especially designed for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments. This wonderful remedy, therefore, stands absolutely alone as the only one possessed of such remarkable curative properties as would warrant its makers in publishing such a marvelous offer as is above made in the utmost good faith.

"I want to tell you of the great improvement in my health since taking your Favorite Prescription," says Mrs. H. K. Jones, of Forest, N. C. "When I began its use I was a physical wreck and had despaired of ever having any health again. Could not sit up all day, was afflicted with nervousness, headache, constipation, and other symptoms of female disease. After taking six bottles of Favorite Prescription, I felt like a new person. Can ride horseback and take all kinds of exercise and do not feel tired."

If you are led to the purchase of "Favorite Prescription" because of its remarkable cures, do not accept a substitute which has none of these cures to its credit.

If you are looking for a perfect laxative try Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Translation.
Where brute strength rages uncontrolled,
No rational work to fullness comes.

The night is dark; a heavy stillness lies
O'er all the sleeping town. What sounds arise?
Far off, and break the stillness, till it seems
The consummation of all hideous dreams?

Swiftly and surely comes a surging mob—
The quiet streets with madness beat and throb—
So swift and sure, as vile a deed is done
As ere the tranquil moon looked down upon!

Oh Christ! Hast Thou then lived and died in vain,
To make the life of love and peace more plain?
Still all wild passions in our hearts do dwell,
Still we forget what Thou has taught, so well!

Oh fierce avengers! but a moment pause
And see yourselves, judged by His holy laws!
Then be among you who would cast a stone
Must be the one who no low deed has done!

Never, for him, have any woman's eyes
Roused that wild creature which in him there lies;
Never has touch of any woman's hand
Betrayed his thoughts, or taxed his self-command.

He never walked where love is bought and sold;
He never purchased pleasure with his gold;
He never paid (and felt his conscience eased)
For what this darkened soul so rudely seized!

All untamed beasts! The heart of man's your home!
Even those who from the noblest races come
Know the wild impulse, the unbridled thought
To which the Christian centuries seem naught!

And you, sir, to whom Fortune has been good;
You, with fine instincts coursing with your blood,
You, with good women, among whom you stand
A gentleman—you, man, who can command—
Yourself, and put your wild beasts down, and say
"Begone! I am your Master, not your prey!"

You surely know the worth of self-restraint,
Of culture, of pure blood without a taint,
And yet, I doubt not, there are times when you
Fall short, and to your best self are not true!

Then shall you judge the wretched creature who
Receives from lawless hands tonight his due?
His wild beast was a reckless brute desire,
Your wild beast is brute thirst for blood and fire!

Oh not alone for order hear me plead,
But for the children who must learn this deed!
To whose white souls these sickening details come
By every fireside and in every home!

Think for a moment, ere this brand you cast,
Reverting to a savage type long past—
Consider if, with deadly poison, you
The minds of girls and boys would imbue!

Will you a morbid greed in them inflame
For tales of violence and acts of shame,
Or show to them a clean and righteous awe
For God's commandments and their country's law?

Sure as you follow your own passion's bent
Till like a raging tempest it is spent,
So must you know that after you are gone
The children reap the whirlwind you have sown!

A SOUTHERN WOMAN.

Escaped an Awful Fate.
Mr. H. Higgins, of Melbourne, Fla., writes, "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Have You Indigestion?

Tendency of the Times.
The tendency of medical science is toward preventive measures. The best thought of the world is being given to the subject. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. It has been fully demonstrated that pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, can be prevented by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of influenza (grip), and it has been observed that this remedy counteracts any tendency of these diseases toward pneumonia. This has been fully proven in many thousands of cases in which this remedy has been used during the great prevalence of colds and grip in recent years, and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. Pneumonia often results from a slight cold when no danger is apprehended until it is suddenly discovered that there is fever and difficulty in breathing and pains in the chest, then it is announced that the patient has pneumonia. Be on the safe side and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as cold is contracted. It always cures. For sale by Richard Gibson.

It Will Surprise You—Try It.
It is the medicine above all others for catarrh and is worth its weight in gold. Ely's Cream Balm does all that is claimed for it—B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

My son was afflicted with catarrh. He used Ely's Cream Balm and the disagreeable catarrh all left him.—J. C. Olmstead, Arcola, Ill.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50c. or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.
